

Sheila Thobani

Sheila is a Milwaukee resident by way of Grapevine, Texas. After she earned her Juris Doctor at Marquette University Law School, Sheila decided to lay down roots in Wisconsin. She is married, has a daughter and a rambunctious boxer. Sheila is currently an attorney who practices education and school law with a focus in special education laws and regulations. Inspired by Dana's idea of Home of Hope, nothing fuels Sheila more than advocating for young women to become powerhouses in society despite dispositional adversities.

